St Petersburg, 27-28 November 2017

FIRST INFORMATION LETTER

Dear Colleagues:

We happy to invite you to attend the Second All-Russian Scientific Conference with International Participation Weedy Plants in the Changing World: Pressing Concerns in Studying Their Diversity, Origin and Evolution dedicated to our national traditions of weed research and commemorating the 130th birthday of N. I. Vavilov. This event is scheduled to be held on 27-28 November 2017 in St Petersburg by the N. I. Vavilov All-Russian Institute of Plant Genetic Resources (VIR). The aim of the Conference is to encourage the involvement of the scientific botanical community in discussing a broad spectrum of both theoretical and practical problems related to weedy plants in the vegetation of Russia and adjacent countries

MAJOR SCIENTIFIC TOPICS TO BE COVERED BY THE CONFERENCE

1. Development of N. I. Vavilov's theory of weedy plants as ancestors of cultivated crops.
2. Composition of weedy vegetation and systematics of individual taxa.
3. Eco-coenotic and geographic features of weedy plants.
4. Methods of studying the diversity of weedy plants.
5. Monitoring of weedy plants and problems of quarantine organisms.
6. Alien species as a source of weedy plants.
7. Data bases as a tool to analyze weedy plants.

Within the Conference's framework plenary, sectional and poster presentations are envisaged.

The Organizing Committee plans to publish the abstracts of the presentations by the time the Conference starts its work.
